

ENERGY POLICY

Lafarge India Private Limited is committed to utilize various forms of energy in a cost effective and efficient manner to conserve energy resources. In order to achieve world-class status in the field of energy conservation, emphasis shall be :

- Set objective in terms of target for each of the specific areas of energy conservation.
- Monitor and control the consumption of energy through effective energy information system and periodic reviews.
- Carry out regular Internal and External Audits to identify areas for improvement.
- Benchmark our performance against the best in the World.
- Adopt state of the art technology to enhance energy efficiency.
- Train employees to make Lafarge India the leader in the area of energy conservation.
- Use all "Best Practices" on energy conservation available in the Lafarge Group.

The management is committed towards continuous improvement through conservation and optimal utilisation of natural resources. Lafarge India Private Limited shall adopt measures to reduce, re-use and re-cycle various natural resources through participation and innovation among the employees at all levels.

Date : 4th February, 2005

M K Chaudhary
Sr. Vice President (Manufacturing)
Lafarge India Private Limited