

STEEL AUTHORITY OF INDIA LIMITED
BHILAI STEEL PLANT

ENERGY MANAGEMENT POLICY

Steel Authority of India Limited, Bhilai Steel Plant (BSP) is an integrated steel plant with an annual production capacity of 4.0 million tones of crude steel specializing in [production of rails, structural, merchant products, wire rods and plates. Bhilai Steel Plant collective affirms its commitment to conserve Energy and shall strive to :

- * Introduce sound Energy Management practices for minimizing Energy consumption and its conservation.
- * Conduct operation in an energy efficient manner for complying with legislation and regulation.
- * Conserve and optimally utilize raw materials, petroleum fuels, steam, power, compressed air, water and other resources.
- * Minimize Energy losses, promote usages of by-product fuels and waste energy recovery.
- * Achieve continual improvement in energy performance by setting and reviewing the objectives and targets periodically.
- * Enhance energy conservation awareness amongst employees.
- * Communicate Energy policy to all the employees and make it available to public on demand.

BINOD KUMAR SINGH
(Managing Director)