

ENERGY MANAGEMENT POLICY

“Apollo tyres limited is committed to the preservation of precious energy by minimising the usage of power and fuel. All members of Apollo family will always strive to achieve the best figures in industry with respect to specific power and specific fuel consumption. We at Apollo tyres believe in continuous improvement and innovative methods to achieve this. Also there will be continual monitoring at the management level of the energy consumption performance factors.”