

Eastman Cast & Forge Ltd. Ludhiana

UNIT PROFILE

ECFL was incorporated to manufacture professional quality hand tools under total quality control on sprawling 7000 sq. ft. covered area in Ludhiana in September 1990. with a quick integration of technology into the production process and strategic calibration of the produce, the company established a good will of business relation with prize O.E.M accounts- Telco, Bajaj , Hero Honda, Ford & many others within a short span of time.

The company is also exporting Hand tools to Belgium, china, panama, Portugal in Europe, Thailand & Malaysia in east Asia .The export houses recognized by govt of India also patronize ECFL for its chrome vanadium tools for export to Japan, Germany & united states.

ORGANISATIONAL SET UP FOR ENERGY CONSERVATION

Salient Features of Energy Conservation Cell

The unit has energy conservation cell at ECFL, Ludhiana headed by General Manager assisted by the Deputy General manager & supported by the the four engineers from the different department forming a team. This team finds various energy saving potential in their working areas ,brings the proposal to Energy cell for elaborate discussions & brain storming sessions to finalization & implementation. This unit is engaged in technology up gradation for minimizing energy consumption & to increase the productivity.

Energy Conservation Cell Structure

